Press Release March 13, 2011

Applications available for New Habitat home

Habitat for Humanity of Cass & Schuyler Counties is accepting applications for a new Habitat home through March 31st. Families in the region that are getting by with inadequate housing and struggling with low income are encouraged to submit an application. Eligibility is based on your need, your income and your willingness to partner with Habitat. You must have enough income to purchase the home on a Habitat mortgage, which seeks no profit and charges no interest. Your income must be no higher than a maximum based on family size. For example, the maximum annual income for a family of four is $35,400. Details are provided in the application.

Applications are available at the First Evangelical Lutheran Church, 301 West 4th Street in Beardstown and the First United Methodist Church, 210 W. Jefferson Street in Rushville. Applications must be submitted by March 31, 2011. For further information call 217-323-1770 or 217-322-3328.
